THOMAS DRAKE AND DESCENDANTS.

THOMAS DRAKE was born in Colyton, Devon Co., England, where the parish register still shows the record of his baptism on September 13, 1635. He was the youngest son of William Drake, Esq., of Yardbury in Colyton, who was buried in Temple Church, London, and whose will, dated November 2, 1636, and probated February 29, 1639–40, is still in existence.* His mother was Margaret, daughter and heiress of William Westover of Colyton. The record of her marriage to William Drake, November 14, 1620, and of her burial at Colyton, April 16, 1635, are also recorded on the Colyton parish register.

Thomas Drake, his father and mother both being dead, followed his relative, John Drake of Taunton, Mass., and Windsor, Conn., to America about 1653–4. He was accompanied by his sister Joane who married Thomas Randall, son of Robert Randall of Weymouth; and Elizabeth, who married Ezekiel Hamlin of Boston, August 8, 1654.†

Thomas Drake soon settled in Weymouth, Mass., his name first appearing on the records of that town in a list of property owners in 1663, in which he is described as owning "Lot 70 containing six acres in 1st Division begininge on Brauntry lyne" and eighteen acres, Lot 33 in 2d Division.‡ Prior to that, the latest list of land owners noted was that of November 26, 1651, in which his name does not appear; hence he settled in Weymouth after 1651, and before 1663.§ The frequency with which his name appears on the land deeds and war records of the times shows that Thomas Drake took an active part in the affairs of the town. His name occurs as witness on deeds December 15, 1664,‖ and three years later he was a member of the Suffolk Troopers. He took an active part in King Philip's war, and June 24, 1676, was a member of the garrison at Punckapouge where he saw at least two months' service.¶
